

Potential Side Effects of Glycopyrrolate (Robinul®)

Common side effects
Blurred vision
Dry mouth
Urinary hesitancy (difficulty urinating) or retention (inability to urinate)
Increased ocular tension (increase pressure inside the eyes)
Tachycardia (fast heart beat)
Decreased sweating
Constipation
Loss of taste
Headache

Important!

The information in this handout is for general educational purposes only and is only a partial list of the potential side effects of this medication.

If you are a patient, please consult the medical professional who prescribed this medication for further information about the potential side effects of this medication.

For additional important information, including about potentially serious side effects of this medication, please make sure to review the page at the link below:

<https://medlineplus.gov/druginfo/meds/a602014.html>